A bit about me:

I have autism and ADHD. I am a happy, cheeky boy who loves 1:1 interaction. I enjoy going out for walks in my wheelchair, the wind in my hair and cause-and-effect toys whilst at home. I also enjoy music. I am very sensitive and sometimes need emotional reassurance and comforting. I enjoy genuine care and affection from people around me. Sensory lights, comfort toys and doing fun activities. Feeling safe, supported and understood.

About the role:

We are looking for a part time carer with extensive experience working with children that have additional needs. Our 9 year old Son has autism and is non verbal. He will need personal care on Saturday and Sunday mornings or during the school holidays and be ready for fun and entertaining activities. The aim of the role is to provide the support that is required to allow our Son to lead an independent life.

The kind of person I am looking for:

Friendly and approachable. Responsible, reliable and trustworthy. Good communication and social skills. To respect confidentiality and be sensitive to his needs. To understand that dignity and independence are important. Be willing to learn and able to work on your own initiative.
